

Electrical

This pathway prepares students for careers in residential, commercial, and industrial electrical systems. Students develop foundational construction skills, electrical knowledge, and safety practices while earning industry-recognized certifications, preparing them for entry-level employment or continued technical education.

Careers

- ✓ Journeyman Electrician
- ✓ Master Electrician
- ✓ Project Manager

Industry Recognized Certifications

- 📄 NCCER Core, Electrical Level I
- 📄 Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Certification

Career Pathway Sequence (3 Credits)

Course 1

V2401 | Core Construction Principles Electrical (1 credit)

Course 2

V2402 | Electrical 1 (1 credit)

Course 3

V2403 | Electrical 2 (1 credit)

www.aacps.org/o/aacps/page/centers-of-applied-technology