

Certified Nursing Assistant

This pathway builds healthcare knowledge and patient care skills through classroom and lab experiences. Students explore health science concepts, technology, and ethical responsibilities while preparing for Maryland Board of Nursing CNA I certification. Graduates are positioned to transition into advanced healthcare careers or postsecondary pathways.

Careers

- ✓ Nursing Assistant
- ✓ Home Health Aide
- ✓ Patient Care Technician

Industry Recognized Certifications

- American Heart Association CPR/AED & First Aid Certification
- Maryland Board of Nursing: Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA-I)

Career Pathway Sequence (3 Credits)

Course 1

V1871 | Honors Certified Nursing Assistant 1
(1 credit)

Course 2

V1872 | Honors Certified Nursing Assistant 2
(1 credit)

Course 3

V1873 | Honors Certified Nursing Assistant 3
(1 credit)

www.aacps.org/o/aacps/page/centers-of-applied-technology