

Carpentry

This pathway prepares students for careers in residential, commercial, and industrial carpentry. Students develop foundational construction skills, carpentry knowledge, and safety practices while earning industry-recognized certifications, preparing them for entry-level employment or continued technical education.

Careers

- ✓ Carpenter
- ✓ Cabinet Maker
- ✓ Project Manager

Industry Recognized Certifications

- 📋 NCCER Core, Carpentry Level I
- 📋 Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Certification

Career Pathway Sequence (3 Credits)

Course 1

V2301 | Core Construction
Principles Carpentry
(1 credit)

Course 2

V2302 | Carpentry 1
(1 credit)

Course 3 Options

V2303 | Carpentry 2
(1 credit)

www.aacps.org/o/aacps/page/centers-of-applied-technology